UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e), petitioner has requested a total of $75,483.67 in attorneys' fees and costs. The undersigned tentatively found that petitioner requested a reasonable amount and was entitled to the full amount requested. The undersigned allowed respondent an opportunity to comment. Respondent did not interpose any objections within the time permitted.

Petitioner's attorney, attorney staff, and life care planner have requested hourly rates that are consistent with the rates previously awarded and/or reasonable. The number of hours is reasonable. Thus, the amount requested is reasonable.²

Petitioner is awarded $75,483.67 to be paid through an ACH deposit to petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

² Petitioner's life care planner, Roberta Hurley, prepared an invoice with several entries condensing multiple activities into one block-billed item. Pet'r's Mot., tab B, at 54. The Secretary's failure to object factors into a finding that Ms. Hurley's expense is reasonable. Nevertheless, Ms. Hurley should describe her activities more specifically and divide her time entries into smaller units. See Caves v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 111 Fed. Cl. 774, 781-83 (2013).

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by filing a joint notice renouncing their right to seek review.
